

Kingdom of Saudi Arabia
Ministry of Higher Education
Al-Imam Muhammad ibn Saud Islamic University
Faculty of Fundamentals of Religion
Department of Fundamentals of Jurisprudence

Fundamentalists' Understanding of Consequences of Acts and Their Jurisprudential Effect

A thesis submitted in fulfillment of the requirements for the PhD. Degree in the Fundamentals of Jurisprudence

By Waleed bin Ali Al-Husain

Supervised By
Dr. Salih bin Sulaiman Al-Yousuf
Associate Professor, Faculty of Fundamentals of Religion, Al-Qassim University

Academic Year 1426/ 1427 AH

Thesis Abstract

The Impact of Fundamentalist to actions and its effects on understanding.

- 1- This thesis tackled the rule of considering the fundamemeutalists deeds and the basis of fundamentalism. These basis can be used as criteria to the application of rules which corras pons Shariaa targets.
- 2- The objective of considering the deeds of fundamentalists is to achier ruling purposes in the beharors of adults these behaviors should not contradict religious rules In this way justice will be achieved and sins could be prevented before taking place. This proves that the religions beliefs are ralid for ever and every where and that they are suitable for specific and exceptional cases. Therfare disregarding the fundamentalist inferences could lead to the Contradi ction of such religious beliefs.
- 3- Religious scholars do agree upon Fundamentalists inferences However they might differ in the scope of application. This could be due to diffences in their approach to achieve their aims.
- 4- The thesis comprises introduction four chapters conclusion and appendices as foliows:
 - A- Introduction: It offer acknowledgement Contest for the research organi zation and the research methodology.
 - B- Chapter one: This chapter provides an explanation to the impact of fundamentalists actions. It is divides into two sections:
 - a-The first section is concerned with proridiring definitions of in ferences and its origin This includes defining inferences defining deeds Origin of the terminology as well as the related terms.
 - b- The second section explains types of inferences in terms of aims and effects : where and when they take place generality and specifiwtj and appearance and disappearance.
 - C- Chapter Two: This chapter consists of six sectons :
 - a- This section provides evidence for the fundamentalists inferences from holy Quram and sunna.
 - b- stateoy these inferences and deeds will be explained in the second section.
 - c- This section provides the rationale underlying the fundom entelists deeds.

d- This section is concerned with the Conditions for the fundamentalists deeds.

e- constraints for the fundamentalist deeds will be discussed in chapter five.

F- The last chapter explains methods of reaching inferences specifically through experiments.

D- Chapter three: This chapter comprises two sections as follows:

a- The first section gives the reasons of taking fundamentalists inferences into consideration in terms of religious evidence which are derived from the Holy Quro and sunna.

b- Reasons derived from efforts of scholars will be presented in section two.

E- Chapter four :

This chapter discusses the impact of the fandom entailed inferences and deeds.

This chapter includes:

a- introduction in which types of religious rules are discussed in terms of deeds inferences.

b- Section one: explanation of the effects of taking deeds inferences into consideration. This includes the must the allowed the good the bad.

c- Section two : The effect of deeds inferences or non-mandatory.

d- Section three:

The impact of deeds inferences in terms of religious rules .

F- Conclusion:

This chapter discusses the research results implications and suggestions for further research.